Thank you for your interest in the Oregon Crusaders Color Guard! We are excited to get the 2017 season underway!

For 2017, we are holding audition camps in Portland, Houston, Southern California and Video submissions. We recommend that you attend an audition camp as we will be learning valuable dance and equipment technique and choreography that will be setting the stage for your 2017 production.

Please come prepared in black dance attire, bring good athletic shoes, gloves and any other items you need to be successful.

Everyone will receive dance and flag training, and those wishing to further their skills on weapons will be invited to participate in rifle and saber classes.

Offers for Membership

At the conclusion of the camp, you will receive detailed feedback on your performance along with one of these options:

- A Contract for Membership
- A Call-back to the April Camp
- An Alternate Position

If you are not offered a membership contract at the first audition, keep coming back. Every year, there are 2 or 3 performers that work themselves into the color guard through hard work and a desire to succeed. OC is a special place to be, and if you want it bad enough, it will happen.

For now, keep practicing and be sure to look for updated information the week of auditions!
